Ravesi's awarded National AHA "Best Bar Presentation and Service 2009 (metro)"

A year after their win for Hotel Bar of the Year in 2008, A-List Party Playground Ravesi's has won 2009 Best Bar Presentation and Service (Metro) at the National Awards for Excellence (AHA) held Friday night, 17 July 2009.

Won jointly with The Langham, Aria Bar and Lounge in Melbourne, Ravesi's is located at the heart of Sydney's most alluring stretch of sand; home to Bondi's beautiful people, fresh from the surf locals, and curious guests from across Australia and the world. Fusing together Sydney's most famous beachside bar with stylish accommodation, casually elegant dining, and glamorous nightlife; in a seductively Sydney combination unique to Bondi's hottest Hotel.

Ravesi's General Manager Troy Graham, a local Bondi boy from way back, is thrilled with the win. "It's fantastic to be recognised by the industry for the second time - especially in a national capacity."

"Ravesi's iconic beachside elegance and our management and staff's attention to every detail makes Ravesi's the perfect place to enjoy Sydney's most incredible beachside views; backed of course, by a brilliant team of top-line hospitality professionals dedicated to the very best in service and standards. Ravesi's has been committed to ensuring guests enjoy the very best Sydney has to offer." he says.

A delight in any season, Ravesi's offers an alluring winter respite, with deliciously cosy wines to warm, world-class cocktails and premium spirits. From glorious summer days to glittering and glamorous winter nights Ravesi's casually elegant surrounds combine Bondi's beachside cool with Sydney's shimmering nights. A place where Bondi's locals, A-listers, and celebrities can and do play on; Ravesi's is at the center of Bondi's alluring life, from day and well into the night.
